Promoting Perinatal Patient Safety Through Teamwork

Content Outline
2. Description of Quality Improvement Methods Focusing on Failures Related to Patient Care Aspects With Major Impact on Perinatal Outcomes
   2.1 Recognition of fetal distress
   2.2 Implementation of a timely cesarean section
   2.3 Appropriate resuscitation of a depressed newborn
   2.4 Appropriate use of oxytocin
   2.5 Appropriate use of vacuum or forceps
3. Results of Seton Perinatal Safety Initiatives
4. Discussion of Vital Factors Impacting Results and Presentation of Additional Collaborative Efforts Addressing Perinatal Patient Safety

Reading Material Resources
This self-assessment module is based on the resources listed below.