

Objectives

- Describe the mechanisms of teratogenicity
- Discuss selected human exposures in pregnancy and fetal consequences
- Review selected infection exposures in pregnancy and fetal consequences
- Identify selected recreational exposures in pregnancy and fetal consequences

Teratology

Content Outline

1. Mechanisms of Teratogenicity
 - A. Underlying principles
 1. Wilson principles
 2. Bradford Hill criteria
 - B. Resources
 1. Books
 2. Online registries
2. Selected Human Exposures
 - A. Medications
 - B. Infections
 - C. Recreational

Reading Material Resources

Module WB2311: Teratology is based on the resource listed below. A copy of the resource is included with the module.

Chapter 4, Teratology, Fetal Medicine: Basic Science and Clinical Practice, Pandy, Pranav, Elsevier, 2020, 30-37